IX.PROFILE OF PRINCIPAL

Murukan Babu C.R., a distinguished academic with 42 years of experience, has dedicated his career to teaching English Language and Literature at the undergraduate level and post graduate levels. Holding an M.A. in English from the University of Kerala (1982), he is currently the Principal and Associate Professor of English at Sadanam Kumaran College, Pathiripala.

A seasoned educator, Murukan Babu has served in prestigious government owned HEIs such as Panampilly Memorial Government College, Chalakudy, self-financed institutions such as Nirmala College of Arts and Science, Chalakudy, and Sadanam Kumaran College, Pathiripala, and at various institutions under the Ministry of Education, Sultanate of Oman. His academic pursuits include ongoing doctoral research on "Colonial Discourse and Fictional Resistance" at Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam. He has also successfully completed a Minor Research Project (UGC-MRP 2005-2007) sponsored by the UGC on the topic "Colonial Discourse and Fictional Resistance: Patterns of Response in the Selected Works of Raja Rao and Mulk Raj Anand."

Murukan Babu's administrative acumen is evident in his tenure as a member of the Syndicate, Senate, and Academic Council at the University of Calicut. He has chaired Boards of Studies and Examination Committees, coordinated NAAC visits, and contributed to curriculum restructuring.

A prolific editor and author, he has published 19 academic books including anthologies and study guides brought out by renowned publishers such as OUP, Cambridge, and Macmillan. He has also served as Chief Editor of the peer-reviewed journal ETUDE.

Murukan Babu has delivered resource sessions for curriculum development, soft skills training, and UG restructuring seminars under the aegis of Kerala State Higher Education Council and other bodies. He remains actively engaged in consultancy, community programs, and the development of self-instructional materials.

His extensive contributions to academics, research, and administration underscore his unwavering commitment to higher education and intellectual growth.
